

Curriculum Vitae

Michael Limberger, born: 16 July 1966, in Linz (Austria)

Since 2013: Associate professor (hoofddocent) (2008-2013 assistant professor)
History Department, Ghent University

Subjects: Economic and Social History (Middle Ages and Early Modern Period) and World History

Studies:

University of Vienna 1984-1990: History, Publicity and Communication

'European University Institute' Firenze Sept. 1991- dec. 1993: Doctoral studies

University of Antwerp - UFSIA, dec. 2000: PhD. in history

Title of thesis: Sixteenth-century Antwerp and its rural surroundings. Social and economic changes in the hinterland of a commercial metropolis (ca. 1450- ca. 1570)

Professional experience:

1994- 2000: Teaching assistant at the University of Antwerp, Department of History (1994-1996: part-time (80%); since 1996: full-time)

Tasks: teaching, research for PhD., administrative tasks

2001 -2002: Senior assistant (Doctor-assistent) at the University of Antwerp, Department of History

Tasks: teaching, research, administrative tasks

2003-2004: Part-time (80%) postdoctoral researcher of the Dutch National Organisation for Scientific Research at the University of Amsterdam (UvA) in the framework of the project: 'The metropolis and the state. The autonomy of Amsterdam and Antwerp in a comparative perspective, c. 1530-1830' (under direction of dr. M. 't Hart).

2003-2004: Part-time (12.5 %) assistant professor at Vesalius College, Vrije Universiteit Brussel for the course on 'History of Russia and the former Soviet Union'

2005-2008: Lecturer at the Catholic University of Brussels

Scholarships and distinctions:

1988: Scholarship of the University of Vienna for particular academic excellence

1989: Grant of the Austrian ministry of scientific research for a three-months research mission to Antwerp for the preparation of my Ma.-thesis

1991-dec. 1993: Grant of the Austrian ministry of scientific research for the doctoral studies at the European University Institute at Firenze.

2001: Shortlisted by the International Economic History Association for the prize 'Recent doctoral research in economic history' in the framework of the XIIIth Economic History Congress in Buenos Aires. The nomination was connected with a scholarship for the participation in the congress.

2003: Awarded a scholarship for the attendance of the XXXVa Settimana di Studi at Prato (Italy) on 'The market for land'

Others:

Member of the Flemish-Dutch Association for Early Modern History (Vlaams-Nederlandse Vereniging voor Nieuwe Geschiedenis) since 2002. – member of direction committee since 2015

Free collaborator of OCTANT (Austrian centre at the University of Antwerp) since 1994.

Free collaborator of the Interuniversity Attraction Pole 'Urban society in the late middle ages' a part of the IUAP-Programme of the Federal Office for Scientific, Technical and Cultural Affairs, Belgium." -2004

Member of the Board of the Linschoten –Vereeniging, The Netherlands since 2010.

Member of the Editorial Board of Historiant – yearbook of the Association for the history of Antwerp.

Member of the Editorial Board of the International Journal of Financial History (new journal)

Member of the Scientific committee of Groupeement d'intérêt scientifique (GIS) d'Histoire maritime, France

Member of the scientific committee of the journal “Cuadernos Medievales” (Buenos Aires) y Comité científico ciclo de conferencias Universidad Nacional Mar de Plata (Argentina)

Member of the Scientific Committee of the journal ‘Jahrbuch für Geschichte des ländlichen Raumes’ (Vienna), since 2004.

Member of the Belgian Association of Social and Economic History, since 1994.

Internal member of the editorial board of the journal 'Bijdragen tot de Geschiedenis' (Antwerp), 2002 -2004.