

Nina Vanhoutte

Publications

Vanhoutte, N. “Leren in Byzantium: didactische poëzie in de 11de eeuw”, Tetradio 29 (2020).

Under review: Vanhoutte, N. ““Een sterk soelaas voor ons verdriet”: de didactische poëzie van Niketas van Herakleia”, Handelingen van de KZM.

Contact details

Office 110.055
Blandijnberg 2
9000 Gent
Belgium
nina.vanhoutte@ugent.be

Education

2016-2019

BA Degree • Ghent University • Literature and Linguistics: Latin - Greek

2019-2020

MA Degree • Ghent University • Historical Literature and Linguistics

2020-2025

PhD • Ghent University • Greek Literature • funded by FWO

Language skills

Dutch (native), English (C2),
French, German,
Modern Greek, Latin,
Ancient and Byzantine Greek.

Additional experience

2020

Internship and subsequent student job at the Database of Byzantine Book Epigrams (DBBE)

Two day crash-course in Greek Palaeography organised by the Greek section of Ghent University (also helped organize the 2022 edition)

2021

Medieval Greek Palaeography Workshop (Johannes Gutenberg Universität, Mainz)

2022

Oxford Summer School of Greek Palaeography (Oxford University – postponed from 2020 due to COVID-19) – received diploma

24th International Congress of Byzantine Studies (Venice/Padua – postponed from 2020 due to COVID-19)

References

Prof. Floris Bernard
Prof. Kristoffel Demoen
Dr. Rachele Ricceri