

Nina Vanhoutte

Contact details

Office 110.055
Blandijnberg 2
9000 Gent
Belgium
nina.vanhoutte@ugent.be

Language skills

Dutch (native), English (C2),
French, German,
Modern Greek, Latin,
Ancient and Byzantine Greek.

Publications

Vanhoutte, N. "Leren in Byzantium: didactische poëzie in de 11de eeuw", Tetradio 29 (2020).

Vanhoutte, N. "'Een sterk soelaas voor ons verdriet': de didactische poëzie van Niketas van Herakleia", Handelingen van de KZM (forthcoming).

Education

2016-2019

BA Degree • Ghent University • Literature and Linguistics: Latin - Greek

2019-2020

MA Degree • Ghent University • Historical Literature and Linguistics

2020-2025

PhD • Ghent University • Greek Literature • funded by FWO

Additional experience

2020

Internship and subsequent student job at the Database of Byzantine Book Epigrams (DBBE)

Two day crash-course in Greek Palaeography organised by the Greek section of Ghent University (also helped organize the 2022 edition)

2021

Medieval Greek Palaeography Workshop (Johannes Gutenberg Universität, Mainz)

2022

Oxford Summer School of Greek Palaeography (Oxford University – postponed from 2020 due to COVID-19)

24th International Congress of Byzantine Studies (Venice/Padua – postponed from 2020 due to COVID-19)

Edition Practices/Editionspraktiken Summer School (Freie Universität Berlin)

2023

Research stay at the Academia Belgica (Rome) to consult manuscripts at the Vatican Library & the Vallicelliana Library

Workshop: "Editing Ancient Grammatical Texts: Challenges and Opportunities" (Wolfson College, Oxford University)

References

Prof. Floris Bernard (supervisor)

Dr. Julián Bértola (co-supervisor)

Prof. Kristoffel Demoen (advisory committee)

Dr. Rachele Ricceri (advisory committee)