

Curriculum Vitae Rihab Ben Othmen

Email: Rihab.BenOthmen@UGent.be

WORK EXPERIENCE AND ACTIVITIES:

2018-2021: postdoc researcher in the MMS-II project (The Mamlukization of the Mamluk Sultanate II: historiography, political order and state formation in fifteenth-century Egypt and Syria), Gent University, Belgium.

2010-2017: member in “Laboratoire du Monde Arabo-Islamique Médiéval”, University of Tunis.

2014-2017: member in the Research Group “Gender and Subjectivities”, Faculty of Arts and Letters La Manouba.

2013-2014: PhD scholarship Annemarie Schimmel Kolleg, History and Society during the Mamluk Era (ASK), Bonn-Germany.

May-June 2011/ May-July 2012: Bibliographic internship in France, Université de La Sorbonne I and École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (EHESS), Paris.

ACADEMIC TRAINING:

2017: PhD in Medieval History and Civilization entitled “La femme et les ulémas au temps des Mamelouks Circassiens” (with high honor), University of Tunis.

2009-2010: Master degree in “Sciences du patrimoine” (with high honor), University of Tunis.

2001-2002: BA in History, University of Tunis.

FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS:

-“Mariage et Divorce en Egypte Mamelouk à travers les biographies féminines d'al-Sakhāwī” (a paper presented at the international conference organized by the Faculty of Arts and Letters La Manouba in November 2012), Manouba University Press, Tunis.

- “ Shajar al-Durr: la chronique d'un pouvoir charismatique et d'un règne contesté” (a lecture presented at the seminar sessions of “Gender and Subjectivities” 9 May 2014), Manouba University Press, Tunis.

- “Amour conjugal et affection parentale: esquisse sur les rapports intra-familiaux au temps des mamelouks” (a lecture presented in the annual seminar of the “Laboratoire du Monde Arabo-Islamique Médiéval” 10 April 2015), Tunis University Press, Tunis.