COURSES TAUGHT AND OTHER PEDAGOGICAL EXPERIENCE

Ghent University:

- Reception History: The Classical Tradition, 2021. 45 contact hours. Design and teaching of a BA-course. Following an introduction to theoretical approaches in reception studies, students are offered a broad survey of manners in which the textual and visual cultures of Classical Antiquity have been creatively received in Western history in literature, the visual arts, architecture, drama and film.
- The Latin Tradition in Europe, 2021. 45 contact hours. With Thomas Velle and Klazina Staat. Co-design and co-teaching of a BA course. Students acquire a broad cultural history of the Latin language and its written tradition in Europe after Classical Antiquity, from the 4th to the 18th century. Also includes extensive theoretical reflections based on selected readings of secondary literature.
- Latin Poetics: Middle Ages, 2021. 45 contact hours. With Jeroen De Gussem. Design and co-teaching of an MA course. Survey and capita selecta of medieval Latin prose and poetry from the 6th to 15th century within broader historical, cultural and literary contexts. Including an introduction to medieval Latin codicology and paleography.

- Latin Language Acquisition II: Livy and Caesar, 2021. 45 contact hours. With Frédéric Van Vosselen. Co-teaching of a BA course. Students acquire the ‘positional reading method’ which allows them to detect normative classical sentence and text structures and their stylistic variations. Meanwhile, they acquaint themselves with fundamental heuristic tools in the study of Latin texts.
- Latin Literature III: Latin Homoerotic Poetry, 2020. 45 contact hours. Design and teaching of a BA course. This course focusses on an extensive Latin corpus of homoerotic poetry from the 1st century BC to the 15th AD, which is studied from both cultural-sociological and literary perspectives and which is also contrasted with parallel traditions in Greek, Arabic and Hebrew.
- Reading Latin Texts: Cicero, 2020. 45 contact hours. With Frédéric Van Vosselen. Co-teaching of a BA course. Through extensive readings of complete works by Cicero, students acquire theoretical and practical insight into how classical Latin prose texts and genres (oration, treatise, letter) are constructed on a micro- and macroscopic level.
- Translation Theory and Practice: Texts in Classical Languages, 2019-2021. 45 contact hours. With Berenice Verhelst. Design and co-teaching of a BA course. This course has students reflect on the craft of translation as a linguistic and literary activity. While offering them the theoretical and conceptual tools to evaluate the quality of a given translation, it also hones their own skills and critical self-awareness as translators of Latin or Greek literature from Antiquity onwards. For an elaborate description, see <https://doi.org/10.1017/S2058631020000392> as well as <https://www.cliv.be/nl/onderwijs/vertaaltheoriepraktijkklassieken/>
- Seminar in General Literary Studies: Introduction to Fairy-Tale Studies, 2018-2020. 45 contact hours. Design and teaching of a BA course. Historical survey of the literary fairy-tale tradition in Europe, Antiquity to postmodernity, followed by an introduction to some of the main theoretical and methodological approaches in fairy-tale studies. Set up so as to guide students in the writing of their theses.
- Latin Language Acquisition I & II, 2009-2015. Occasional substitute teaching of a BA course. Focus on language acquisition and reading skills through syntactic and narrative text analysis.
- French Literature III, 2013. 6 contact hours. Design and teaching of a module in an MA course. Focus on theories and methodologies in contemporary folk- and fairy-tale research with case studies from early modern France.
- Latin Poetics: Middle Ages, 2011. 45 contact hours. With Wim Verbaal. Design and co-teaching of an MA course. On the emancipation of fictionality and the marvellous in high medieval Latin literature, how this helped pave the way for later genres such as the fairy tale, and how nineteenth- and twentieth-century folklore studies have projected certain Romantic distortions on that literary-historical development. Including student workshops on multi-lingual literary dossiers.

University of Stockholm:

- Advanced Latin - Postclassical Texts, 2017. 18 contact hours. With Erika Kihlman. Design and co-teaching of an MA course. On the reception of Vergil and Ovid in medieval and early modern literatures, capita selecta (e.g. Proba, Baudri of Bourgueil, Chrétien de Troyes, Narcisus et Dané, Lay of Sir Orfeo, Shakespeare, John Milton,...).
- Latin: Methods in Philology, 2017. 6 contact hours. Design and teaching of a module in an MA course. On the historical and current relations between psychoanalysis and classical literature, also in light of broader shifts in twentieth-century textual hermeneutics. Focus on the work of Freud and Lacan.
- Latin III: Golden Age Prose, 2017. 27 contact hours. Design and teaching of a BA course. Introduction to the features and variety of Latin Golden Age prose, honing in on the stylistic registers, rhetoric and narrative craftsmanship of Cicero and Caesar in their capacity as political storytellers.
- Latin II: Medieval Prose and Poetry, 2015-2016. 27 contact hours. Design and teaching of a BA course. Survey course on medieval Latin literature in its broad literary-historical contexts, Venantius Fortunatus to Dante, with frequent excursions into European vernacular literatures and visual culture, and special attention for the Latin tradition's engagement with its classical heritage.

Other pedagogical experience:

- Official mentor to PhD candidates at Ghent University, 2019-present
- Supervisor to MA student research interns at RELICS, 2018-present
- Supervisor to 30 BA and MA dissertations, primarily in the fields of Latin literature, medieval literatures, comparative literature, and fairy-tale studies. 2009-present. Full list available upon request
- Workshops for high school students on formulating research questions in the Humanities at Ghent University, 2018-present
- Individual feedback and guidance for high school students enrolled in Ghent University's Online Introduction to Narratology, 2018-present

- Licensed volunteer youth animator and animator-instructor – Christian Mutuality Kazou / Medical Pedagogic Centre Strijtem (Belgium). Annual summer camps and other activities with adolescents and children who are intellectually, mentally, physically and/or socially challenged.

EVENT ORGANISATION AND CONFERENCE CHAIRING

Academic and public event organisation:

- Co-organiser of permanent education/public lecture series Literary Duets (with Tim Noens). Ghent University, Ghent (2019-2020). In each lecture, a duo of experts juxtaposes a seemingly unlikely pair of literary texts from very different historical, geographical and cultural worlds so as to tease out an engaging dialogue between them (e.g. Mahabharata and Wagner's Ring des Nibelungen, Hadewijch's Liederen and Cixous' Le Livre de Promethea, Tasso's Gerusalemme liberata and Tolstoy's Vojna i mir).
- Co-organiser of public discussion panel Klassieke literatuur in bewerking voor kinderen en jongeren (with Berenice Verhelst). Ghent University, Ghent (3-5-2019). Scholars, authors, translators and dramaturges discuss their practice of bringing classical mythology to a young audience, focusing especially on Ovid's tale of Daedalus and Icarus. With Sylvie Geerts, Peter Van Olmen, Marcel Roijaards, Stefan van den Broeck and Tom Bruynooghe.
- Co-organiser of permanent education/public lecture series Great Characters (with Jürgen Pieters and Youri Desplenter). Ghent University, Ghent (2018-2019). In 12 evening lectures, experts discuss famous and infamous characters that have reappeared again and again throughout literary history, from Helen of Troy to Gawain, Lucifer to Little Red Riding Hood, etc.
- Organiser of international colloquium Latin Studies Today. Stockholm University and Ghent University, Stockholm (08-02-2017 – 10-02-2017). A three-day colloquium dedicated to the mediation, self-reflectiveness and teaching of Latin literature, Antiquity tot present.
- Co-organiser of international conference The Fairy-Tale Vanguard (with Vanessa Joosen). Ghent University and University of Antwerp, Ghent (20-08-2012 – 22-08-2011). An international conference dedicated to literary self-consciousness and experimentation in the pan-European fairy-tale tradition. Including two related activities open to the broader public, namely a guided folktale-tour through the city of Ghent in collaboration with local folklorists and storytellers, and a literary evening with internationally acclaimed fairy-tale authors and illustrators (Rikki Ducornet, Peter Verhelst, Bernard De Wulf, Carll Cneut), in collaboration with NTGent municipal theatre.

- Co-organiser of the international conference Never-Ending Stories: Adaptation of Canonical Texts in Children's Literature (main organisers Sylvie Geerts and Sara van den Bossche). Ghent University, Ghent (20-01-2011 – 21-01-2011). An international conference dedicated to the rewriting of the literary canon, including classical texts, in children's literature. Including a literary afternoon with the Flemish Children's Rights Commissioner (Bruno Van Obbergen) and three acclaimed children's authors (Aidan Chambers, Ed Franck, Michael De Cock) at the Ghent municipal library, open to the broader public.

Conference chairing:

- Respondent and chair to panel "Deformed Classics". Winkelmann's Victims: The Classics – Norms, Exclusions and Prejudices. RELICS / Ghent University, Ghent (20-09-2018 – 22-09-2018)
- Chair to panel "Medieval Narratology". ENN4: Modelling Narratives Across Borders. European Narratology Network / Ghent University, Ghent (16-04-2015 – 18-04-2015)
