Scholarships

- Funded by a scholarship provided by the IMPAKT program of the European Union, I have from March 1 to April 1 2017 undertaken a research trip through the Tiantai Mountains.
- Funded by the Erasmus Mundus Lotus Unlimited Project, I have had a research stay at Nanjing University from August 2014 to February 2015. The purposes were academic exchange and usage of the library resources in connection with my research projects.
- Based on a scholarship provided by the Chung Hwa Institute of Buddhist studies, I did research on Fagu shan from August 1 to August 30 2006. During this time I collected materials relevant for my Ph.D. project.
- My MA degree in Frankfurt and Kingston upon Hull was sponsored by a scholarship provided by the Konrad Adenauer Foundation.

Evidence and certificates documenting all of the above are available on request.
